Occupying a truly breathtaking spot on the southern Dalmatian coast, Dubrovnik is equally famous for its impressive city walls and ramparts, which date back to the 10th century. The medieval town lies on a small peninsula jutting out into the Adriatic Sea. Parks and citrus trees surround the imposing walls, which in places are 20 feet thick and 80 feet tall. Many of the town's cultural monuments were badly damaged during the Balkan War of the 1990s but have been painstakingly restored to their former splendor.

Group Welcome Dinner Provided

Day 3: Friday 9 October Dubrovnik

After breakfast, learn more about Dubrovnik's key sites, and take a guided walking tour of the city, visiting some of the filming locations used in "Game of Thrones" along the way. Dubrovnik was the main filming location in Croatia for King's Landing, a fictional city in Game of Thrones. Following the guided tour, you will enjoy some free-time to explore Dubrovnik ON YOUR OWN. If you only do one thing, you must walk the Dubrovnik Walls. There is no better way to experience Dubrovnik than to see it from the medieval walls. Highlights include climbing the Minceta Tower and the views over the Old Town. Sample Croatian and Montenegrin wine at D'Vino Wine Bar, enjoy a drink at one of the Cliffside bars with amazing views of the sea, or enjoy a swim at the Buža beach.

Dinner On Your Own

Day 4: Saturday 10 October Dubrovnik

After breakfast, enjoy some free-time to enjoy and explore Dubrovnik at your leisure. This afternoon we will enjoy a panoramic boat ride on a beautiful wooden boat through the Bay of Mali Ston to the oyster farms. We will enjoy oyster tasting featuring 3 oysters, a glass of wine, and homemade 'raki' (brandy) or the Liqueur of Myrtle. We will also visit Lokrum Island, which offers magnificent nature walks through botanical gardens and olive groves. Paths climb up to sites like the old Benedictine Monastery and Napoleon's Fort Royal at the very top, passing native peacocks along the way. Also, sit on a replica of the Iron Throne at the Lokrum Visitor Center.

Group Dinner Provided with live Folklore Show

Day 5: Sunday 11 October Split

After breakfast, we depart for Split, a town on Croatia's Dalmatian Coast, is known for its beaches and the fortress like complex at its center, Diocletian's Palace, erected by the Roman emperor in the 4th century. Once home to thousands, its sprawling remains include more than 200 buildings. Within its white stone walls and under its courtyards are a cathedral and numerous shops, bars, cafes, hotels and houses. Upon arrival, we will enjoy a guided tour of the Diocletian Palace and time to explore this beautiful city at your leisure.

Dinner On Your Own

Day 6: Monday 12 October Split - Trogir

After breakfast, we transfer to Trogir, a town on the central Adriatic coast of Croatia. Trogir's preserved old town, known for its mix of Renaissance, baroque and Romanesque buildings, lies on a small island connected to the mainland and the island of Čiovo by bridges. The 13th-century Cathedral of St. Lawrence houses the Renaissance Chapel of St. John and offers sweeping views from its bell tower. Today we will enjoy a cooking class for your lunch. We will start with a visit to the local market as we prepare some Dalmatian specialities. The menu depends as much on the catch-of-the-day at the market, as well as, your personal preferences. While talking about the Dalmatian traditions, we will recreate your relationship with food so that you truly understand the meaning of the old saying: "Love comes through the stomach". Return to Split for a free evening.

After breakfast, we depart for Zadar. We will visit and tour Krka National Park. The Krka National Park is situated along the Krka River in southern Croatia. It's known for a series of 7 waterfalls. Continue on to Zadar. Located across the Adriatic Sea from Italy, it is not surprising that Italian influences are felt throughout Dalmatia with its fantastic coastline and historic monuments. The town of Zadar occupies a narrow peninsula in Dalmatia's northern corner and serves as a gateway into the stunning Zadar Archipelago. Zadar served as the base for the Byzantine fleet in the Middle Ages and delights visitors with its exceptional historic monuments from its Hungarian, Venetian, and Roman periods all the way back to the original Illyrian inhabitants. We will also enjoy a tasting of Maraschino, a unique liquor made from the Maraska Cherries from Zadar
